Learn about programs

Real-world experience. Real-world readiness.

Your life-changing connections start when you arrive on campus, and you'll graduate with valuable skills that set you apart from the pack.

One-on-One Career Assistance

Career counselors help you prepare to launch your career in the U.S. or abroad, guiding you through resume development and practice interviews. They'll also help you find internships with partnering employers. Learn more at syracuse.edu/services.

Immersive Experiences

Through our hands-on approach to education, you'll discover countless ways to apply classroom learning to practical settings. For example, you can gain firsthand experience through intensive study and internships in public policy and the entertainment and media industries at satellite campuses in Los Angeles, New York City and Washington, D.C.

Orange champions. Orange family.

Be yourself—and belong to something bigger.
Active involvement is the status quo here.

Great Sports—and Fans!

Syracuse University gets high marks from The Princeton Review for “Students Pack the Stadiums”—it’s a magical experience, and the excitement is contagious. Just ask Otto the Orange (named a “top mascot” by ESPN), who is famous for spreading kindness and joy all over campus. Athletes and fans alike are proud to be Orange!

Traditions That Unite Us

For more than 150 years, we’ve been building traditions of spirit and community that define the Orange experience—from the heart-thumping beat of the marching band to the music of Crouse College’s chimes to the beauty of the first snowfall on the Quad. Whether we’re coming together in song, service or celebration, you’ll always have a chance to join in and be part of the action.

See a whole other side of New York state.

Our campus overlooks the City of Syracuse and Onondaga Lake in the heart of New York state. With a metropolitan population of nearly 700,000, Syracuse has all the conveniences of a midsize city within a day's drive from urban hubs like New York City, Boston and Montreal.

Things to Do in Central New York

- Dine. From Vietnamese to vegan, BBQ to brewpub, Syracuse is full of choices—many offering gluten-free, halal and kosher options, and locally sourced ingredients.
- Shop. Syracuse is home to an abundance of vibrant and unique local businesses—many are in Armory Square, the hub of downtown—as well as international food and farmers markets.
- Play. Rent a paddle boat at Green Lakes State Park, ski at a nearby mountain or conquer your fear of heights at the 'Cuse Challenge Ropes Course on campus.
- Volunteer. Opportunities close to campus include Upstate University Hospital and Habitat for Humanity.
- Enjoy Life. Ride the Ferris wheel at the New York State Fair, catch a minor league baseball game or pick apples at Beak & Skiff—named Best Apple Orchard by USA Today.
- Experience the Seasons. Syracuse has four distinct seasons, each with its own activities and appeal.

People and programs. Here to help you succeed.

Whether you're looking for academic guidance, peer inspiration or a welcoming community, you'll find the support you need to navigate your journey and start making your own impact.

Academic Inspiration and Guidance

- > Advising and Tutoring. Right from the start, you'll be matched with an academic advisor, and once you declare a major you'll have a faculty advisor and guidance from peer advisors. Plus you'll have access to academic support every step of the way, from group workshops to one-on-one tutoring.
- > Research for All. Through the Syracuse Office of Undergraduate Research and Creative Engagement, you can receive funding to conduct faculty-guided research and engage in creative projects that elevate your understanding and deepen your insight.
- > Summer College. High school students can explore passions and experience college life for one to six weeks with 70+ credit and noncredit courses.
- > SummerStart. New first-year students can start their college experience early, take classes, build community with fellow students and connect with faculty.

ACADEMIC PROGRAMS TO LOOK FOR:
LEARNING COMMUNITIES
U.S. News & World Report

A Community for All

- First-Year Experience and Support. You'll gain a foundation for success inside and outside the classroom through a structured, shared experience that emphasizes diversity, inclusion, belonging, community, health and wellness. We also provide specialized advising for students transferring from another college.
- A Community of Respect. Our Office of Multicultural Affairs provides support and guidance, encouraging all students to become members of a community that's respectful of differences. Our LGBTQ Resource Center delivers support, community and education around marginalized genders and sexualities, and the complex intersections of our multiple identities.
- Inclusivity and Accessibility. Syracuse University is home to one of the first disability cultural centers on any campus in the U.S. We accommodate individuals with disabilities through a wide range of services, recognizing all students' potential to excel in both educational and career opportunities.
- Committed to Military-Connected Students. Syracuse University has a long history of welcoming military-connected students and provides unparalleled support for the veteran and military community. We offer a dedicated team of military admissions advisors, and our undergraduate student veterans have a 100% job placement rate within 5+ years.

Our impact. Amplified.

You'll find our alumni in newsrooms and laboratories, boardrooms and classrooms, on Broadway and in the Oval Office. From the moment you set foot on campus until long after you walk the stage, you're part of something bigger that belongs to us all.

Powerful Network

Syracuse University graduates rise to become influential leaders in the careers of today and tomorrow, while staying proudly involved with their alma mater. Career Services will connect you with alumni who can serve as mentors and set you on a course toward career opportunities.

Notable Alumni

Our alumni have been making their mark on the world since the University's founding in 1870. Whether in the arts, entertainment, journalism, business, law, human services or anything in between, our students have consistently gone on to gain national and international acclaim for their accomplishments.

“Whenever you have a Syracuse alum on your team, you have a greater chance of winning and of getting the job done better than anyone else.
